Day 2: Rome

Arrive in Rome: Welcome to Rome. Depending on your arrival time, you may have free time to settle in and explore the city on your own.

Rome on foot: On your self-guided walking tour, view the Pantheon, built to honor all the gods of Rome. Continue to the grand Piazza Navona and the Spanish Steps, Europe's widest staircase. Before you say "arrivederci," toss a coin into the Trevi Fountain to ensure a return trip to the Eternal City.

Dinner: This evening, get to know your group over a pizza dinner.

Day 3: Rome

Sightseeing tour of Vatican City: On your sightseeing tour, look for the papal protectors who flank the entrance to St. Peter's Basilica: they're the highly trained soldiers of the Vatican's Pontifical Swiss Guard. Inside, pass under gilded archways before visiting St. Peter's tomb. Then, experience Michelangelo's breathtaking frescoes at the Sistine Chapel.

Sightseeing tour of Rome: Walk through the Colosseum, the world's most famous arena. Here, you can almost hear the stamping feet of the crowds gathered for gladiatorial combat. Nearby, the ruins of the Roman Forum mark the former heart of the Roman Empire. Julius Caesar gave many of his political speeches on this very site.

Day 4: Rome

Free time in Rome: Explore the city at your own pace.

• Florence: Join an excursion to Florence, the birthplace of the Italian language, opera, and the Renaissance. As you explore the city, pass by classical statues at the Piazza della Signoria. You'll walk across the Ponte Vecchio, a medieval bridge where many of Florence's famed leather and gold artisans keep shop. The domed cap of the Santa Maria del Fiore Cathedral, or the Duomo, dominates the skyline. Opposite the Duomo, look for the bronzed doors of Ghiberti's Gates of Paradise at the Baptistry. Those who do not visit Florence will enjoy free time in Rome.

See a variety of artifacts dating back to 550 B.C. at the Delphi Museum, and learn more about the mythical past of Greece.

Travel to Athens: Make your way to the capital city of Greece.

Dinner: When you arrive in Athens, share a special Greek dinner before turning in for the night.

Day 9: Athens

Visit the Temple of Athena Nike, which once housed a gold statue of the goddess, her wings clipped to prevent her from deserting the city. See where the first Olympic athletes displayed physical strength as a way to honor and entertain the gods of Mount Olympus at the Olympic Stadium.
