

Day 1: Fly overnight to Finland

Meet your group and travel overnight to Helsinki.

Day 2: Helsinki

Arrive in Helsinki: “Tervetuloa,” or welcome, to Finland. Explore the coastal capital city of Helsinki and take in the striking simplicity and color of the city’s architecture.

Walking tour of Helsinki: Start your day with a walking tour of the city. From the Government House to Helsinki University to Uspenski Cathedral, you’ll see why Helsinki was once voted the World Design Capital.

Dinner in Helsinki: Get to know your group over a traditional Finnish dinner.

Day 3: Helsinki | Night ferry

Sightseeing in Helsinki: Spend your morning seeing Helsinki’s most iconic spots, including Helsinki’s Parliament House and Temppeliaukio Church, also known as the Church of the Rock—an iconic landmark built directly out of one.

Free time in Helsinki: Take the rest of the day to explore Helsinki on your own before heading to Stockholm on a night ferry. Dinner is provided during this voyage.

Day 4: Stockholm

Arrive in Stockholm: “Välkommen” to Stockholm, the capital of Sweden. Get to know this storybook city, nicknamed “Beauty on the Water”—a nod to the 14 islands and 57 bridges that make up the municipality—during your two-day stay.

Sightseeing in Stockholm: After your arrival, your local guide will introduce you to Stockholm’s impressive architecture and rich history. Today you’ll see City Hall, get a look at Vasa, a mostly intact 17th-century Swedish warship, and explore the oldest church in Stockholm, which dates back to 1306.

Dinner in Stockholm: Enjoy a traditional Swedish dinner with your group at a local restaurant.

Day 5: Stockholm

Free time in Stockholm: Get to know Stockholm on a more personal level with a free day. Take a fika break at a local café, get a closer look at Stockholm’s Old Town, or get down at the ABBA museum, a tribute as dazzling as the 1970’s Swedish pop group themselves.

📍 Drottningholm Palace: Visit the private residence of the Swedish royal family and see how the other half lives. Originally built in the late 16th century, the palace was named a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1991.

Day 6: Stockholm | Copenhagen

Arrive in Copenhagen: Make your way via train to Copenhagen and say hello to one of the coziest countries. So cozy in fact that they have a word to describe the psychological state of togetherness—hygge, pronounced “hoo-gah.”

Walking tour of Copenhagen: See Copenhagen from every angle with a guided tour that takes you through Tivoli Gardens, the city’s lively amusement park and inspiration behind Disney World. Continue your stroll to the Danish Prime Minister’s Office, the Supreme Court of Denmark, and Christiansborg Palace, the seat of the Danish Parliament.

Dinner in Copenhagen: Wrap up your day with a group dinner of traditional Danish specialties.

Day 7: Copenhagen

Sightseeing in Copenhagen: Spend the day exploring more of the city, including Old Town and City Hall Square.

Free time in Copenhagen: Use the rest of your day to familiarize yourself with Copenhagen.

Day 8: Copenhagen | Night ferry

Free day in Copenhagen: Your last day in Copenhagen is yours. Spend the day strolling through the city streets, or if you have time, check out The Little Mermaid, an iconic bronze statue based on the fairytale by the same name.

📍 Danish food tour: Put on those walking shoes, expand that stomach, and get ready for food—lots of it. Your food tour around the city will hit all the main food groups: cheese, sandwiches, sausages, candy, and more.

Travel to Oslo: Take a ferry from Copenhagen to Oslo, Norway, Land of the Midnight Sun and home of Viking kings and canyon-cut fjords.

Day 9: Oslo

Arrive in Oslo: Take a ferry from Copenhagen to Oslo, Norway, Land of the Midnight Sun and home of Viking kings and canyon-cut fjords.

Sightseeing in Oslo: See beautifully preserved ninth-century Viking ships at the Bygdøy Peninsula and the site that holds the annual Nobel Peace Prize banquet. Enjoy a stroll along the harbor as you pass Oslo University, the Parliament House, and other iconic Norwegian sites including the Viking Museum and Vigeland Sculpture Park.

Dinner in Oslo: Enjoy a variety of Norwegian delicacies with your group over dinner.

Day 10: Depart for home

Arrive at the airport, where you’ll check in for your return flight home.

📍 2-DAY TOUR EXTENSION

Day 10: Oslo | Bergen

Travel from Oslo to Bergen, Norway’s second largest city, known as the “City of Seven Mountains” for its beautiful mountain range and renowned for its impressive fjords. Experience what makes Norway one of the most beautiful countries in the world: the fjords. Formed millions of years ago by glacier movements, Norway’s fjords attract visitors from all over the world.

Day 11: Bergen

Sightseeing in Bergen: A local guide will take you through the city, showing you some of the top sights, like Bryggen, the oldest section, giving you a glimpse into the city’s past.

Free time in Bergen: Take a few hours before dinner to explore the city on your own or with your group. Maybe even try a traditional Norwegian pastry, the cinnamon roll, or skillingboller, invented here in 1893.

📍 Mount Ulriken cable car excursion: Take a cable car up Mount Ulriken, the highest of the Seven Mountains that surround Bergen. Take in the fresh mountain air, along with stunning panoramic views of Bergen and the fjords.

Dinner in Bergen: Grab a Norwegian farewell dinner with your group at a local restaurant.

Day 12: Depart for home

Arrive at the airport, where you’ll check in for your return flight home.
